"Colonel Roosevelt and General Wood" "William F. McCombs"

Among the many controversics over Woodrow Wilson's public life, none has been argued more bitterly than the question, "Why weren't Colonel Roosevelt and General Wood permitted to go to France?" Mr. Tumulty tells the inside story for the first time.

Another subject of dispute has been the relation: ship of Mr. Wilson to his campaign manager, William F. McCombs. The recently published book by the late Mr. McCombs was a bitter attack. Mr. Tumulty tells what he knows about it.

For the exclusive newspaper rights to the Tumulty story in the Middle Atlantic States, The New York Times has paid the highest price ever paid for such a publication. Nothing equal to this work has appeared in American history or biography since Nicolay and Hay's Life of Abraham Lincoln.
